III. President's Report & Treasurer's Report combined – Linda Blackman

Fundraising Update -

- 1) Boon Supply - The site is still open, we currently have $217.00 in fundraising. We have the option to keep this open/active for people to access and shop until the holiday season is over.
- 2) Dine-and-share - Looking to set up additional Dine-and-Shares. The Plan is to schedule and hold on Sunday evenings as weekdays don't seem to be as popular.
- 3) Nothing Bundt Cakes closes December 23rd. The plan is to hold another in the spring.

Bylaws Changes - The law firm has completed the Bylaw changes and they are ready for review by the Executive members and the goal is to have a first reading at the next meeting.

IV. Treasurer's Report – Linda Blackman

Statement of Financial Positions as of December 14, 2020 was presented. (copy attached)

The only change to the statement was the expenditure for checks and endorsement stamps for the new account, in the amount of approximately $100. Additionally, partial funds from the old account, approximately $30K, was transferred to the new account.

We raised $598.74 to date for fundraising, which doesn't include Amazon smile and donations.

Activity Report - copy attached.

V. Director Reports:

A. Orchestra – Mr. Terry Foster

No report not in attendance.

B. Band – Mr. Anthony Gnutek - Discussed a possible different look to Pops Concert. Nothing finalized to share. Also, if football happens, looking at what the Marching band may do and possibly play the national anthem at a baseball game. Everything is dependent on the environment at that time.

C. Choir – Mrs. Jennifer Parker

Madrigals - At this time the Mad's dinner is TBD.

Musical - The musical date has been postponed to a later date and rehearsal schedule will be shared over the winter break.

VI. VP of Band/Orchestra/Choir Reports

VP of Band - Not in attendance

VP of Orchestra - nothing to report

VP of Choir - nothing to report.

VII. Questions - no questions

VIII. Adjournment
